

Poetry of Molvi Ahmed Mallah

Prof: Abdullah Mallah*

Renowned poet Molvi Ahmed Mallah (1877-1969), who composed a Deewan and more than ten books on different aspects of Sindhi Poetry, composed some books in prose and also translated Quran in Sindhi verse.

This paper indicates the period of his poetry and throws light on the channels of influence on his poetry. It is indicated in this paper that the poet who latter on became an Islamic scholar, influenced the society at large.

More ever the views of various writers and scholars have been given to prove the significance and quality of Molvi Mallah. Some of the poems have been analysed from the point of view of his ideology and moral concerns. The main data of the paper is derived from his own poetry.

*